A photograph of a wooden balcony on a dark wooden building. The balcony has a railing with a decorative pattern of dark, teardrop-shaped cutouts. Below the railing is a window with four panes and light-colored wooden frames. The balcony is supported by dark wooden posts. The building's exterior is made of dark, weathered wood. A yellow banner is at the bottom left.

The image shows a kitchen area with white upper cabinets and a light-colored wooden countertop. On the countertop, there is a red kettle, a black coffee maker, a wooden cutting board, and a glass. To the right, there is a sink with a silver faucet. A wooden shelving unit is integrated into the cabinetry, holding various items like a green container and a vase with flowers. In the foreground, a light-colored wooden table is partially visible. On the right wall, there is a large, colorful mural of a sun with rays. The ceiling has a recessed light fixture.

A photograph showing a multi-story building with a brown facade, heavily encased in a complex metal scaffolding system. The scaffolding consists of numerous vertical and horizontal poles, with wooden planks and perforated metal safety screens attached to form work platforms. Several windows are visible, some of which are covered with clear plastic sheeting. The building's architecture includes arched window openings and a prominent vertical section with a different facade material. The sky is overcast and grey.
